

DEPARTMENT OF REGULATION AND LICENSING
MUSIC, ART, AND DANCE THERAPY ADVISORY COMMITTEE
MADISON, WISCONSIN
SEPTEMBER 24, 2002

MINUTES

PRESENT: Naomi Berkowitz, Janet Carr, Laurie Farnan, Lynn Kapitan, and Deborah Thomas,

EXCUSED: Nancy Dexter Schabow, Grace Valentine, Dawn Sindloff-Shegonee

STAFF PRESENT: Clete Hansen, John Schweitzer, Grace Schwingel, Gail Pizarro, and Larry Schulte

CALL TO ORDER

Clete Hansen called the meeting to order at 1:05 p.m. Five Committee members were present.

AGENDA

Amendments to agenda: Gail Pizarro will present issues relating to the jurisprudence exam at the end of the agenda. The Committee would like to discuss rotation of committee membership (Janet Carr)

MOTION: Naomi Berkowitz moved, seconded by Deborah Thomas, to approve the agenda as amended. Motion carried unanimously. Motion carried unanimously.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES OF JULY 19, 2002

MOTION: Deborah Thomas moved, seconded by Laurie Farnan, to approve the minutes of July 19, 2002 as written. Motion carried unanimously.

ROSTER CHANGES

John Schweitzer is Legal Counsel for this Advisory Committee, but William Black is incorrectly listed as the legal counsel. John Schweitzer's phone # is: (608) 267-5205.

A suggestion was made to have Kimberly Nania review the Committee membership roster and consider rotation of the committee members. This will be discussed more in depth at the first meeting in 2003.

SCOPE STATEMENT: ACT 80 AS IT AFFECTS MUSIC, ART AND DANCE THERAPISTS TO PRACTICE PSYCHOTHERAPY

John Schweitzer distributed and reviewed an updated copy of the scope statement.

Mr. Schweitzer stated that the statutory changes of Act 80 become effective on November 1, 2002, and rules should be in place by that date; however, they won't be ready by that date.

John Schweitzer explained options that would be available to the Department if the rules are not in place by November 1, 2002. Legal Counsel, John Schweitzer, reviewed the process the rule needs to go through to be adopted.

Clete Hansen explained the differences between being a Committee and being a Board. A Committee makes recommendations to the Department Secretary. The Secretary usually takes the advice of the Advisory Committee, but the final decision is up to the Department Secretary.

WORK ON REVISED PSYCHOTHERAPY RULES

John Schweitzer reviewed changes that were made to the rules and noted suggestions made by the Committee to the wording of the rule. John Schweitzer will revise the rules to include the Committee's recommendations.

There was a discussion as to providing licensure to people who get a Wisconsin license in order to have leverage to practice in another state, their home state. The implications of reciprocity in this scenario were discussed. If they meet Wisconsin's criteria there wouldn't be a problem.

REVIEW AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS: APPLICATION FOR LICENSE TO PRACTICE PSYCHOTHERAPY

John Schweitzer reviewed the application form and the Committee made suggested revisions clarifying the language used on the form and the format of the form.

Larry Schulte will take the suggestions and reword and reformat the form. The deadline for taking advantage of a grandmothering clause was changed from November 1st to January 1st. The Committee will need to look at the application form again before it is sent out. Legal Counsel, John Schweitzer will revise the rules and send them to the Committee and get out a notice of public hearing within the next 2-3 weeks.

SCHEDULE 2003 MEETING DATES

The next meeting will be Monday, Dec. 9, 2002 at 9:30 a.m. The Committee will decide on the 2003 meeting dates at the December 9th meeting.

JURISPRUDENCE EXAM

Gail Pizarro, Ph.D. addressed the committee and presented information regarding the jurisprudence exam. Gail Pizarro handed out an initial draft of options for exam development and possible topical areas. She talked with the Committee about ideas on how to develop an exam. It was anticipated it would take about 2 days to conduct a workshop. Gail Pizarro asked for some direction as to when the Committee would want this exam development process finished. There are four different methods of exams, open book exam, jurisprudence closed book exam, or mixtures of these two methods.

MOTION: Naomi Berkowitz moved, seconded by Deborah Thomas, that the jurisprudence exam for MADT be a mail-home, open-book exam. Motion carried unanimously.

MOTION: Deborah Thomas moved, seconded by Lynn Kapitan, to have an abbreviated exam available by Nov. 1st until a full exam is in place.
Motion withdrawn

Naomi Berkowitz, Laurie Farnan, Gail Pizzaro and John Schweitzer agreed to work on a subcommittee to identify an abbreviated exam to be ready for the November 1st deadline until a full exam is in place.

MOTION: Janet Lew Carr moved, seconded by Lynn Kapitan, to require that those applying for grandmothering must take and pass the jurisprudence exam when it is available. Motion carried unanimously.

Legal Counsel, John Schweitzer, will add the grandmothering issues to the rule and send committee members a copy of the revised rule.

ADJOURNMENT

MOTION: Deborah Thomas moved, seconded by Naomi Berkowitz, to adjourn the meeting at 4:25 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

NEXT MEETING: Monday, December 9, 2002
